1192_Mae-Demaio

Domenica DeMaio (left), known to her friends as May, was a 24 hours a day, 7 days-a-week dispatcher for the Oxford Ambulance Association. They and husband James started their duties in 1954. May served for 21 years until she retired in 1975. Her dedication to the town made her a legend in her own time.

The booklet cover features a decorative border with floral corners. At the top, it says "30th Anniversary Ball 1942 - 1972" and "Riverside Fire Co., Inc.". In the center is a black and white portrait of Captain William Story in his firefighter uniform. Below the portrait, the text reads "Captain William Story 1972 Oxford, Connecticut". On the left side, there is an advertisement for "LAND 'N LAKE INN". The ad includes a silhouette of a lake and mountains, the text "You will Dine well" at Land 'N Lake Inn, and details about the restaurant's location (19 miles from N.H., Bpt., Wby., 'N Danbury), dining options (Gourmet Dining, Full Course Dinners), and service (Open Year Round). It also mentions "Major Credit Cards". The bottom of the booklet cover has the text "1972_30th-Anniversary-ball-booklet-cover".
